

Benjamin M. Ampel

Assistant Professor in Computer Information Systems | Georgia State University
bampel@gsu.edu | <https://bampel.com>

Research Snapshot

Benjamin M. Ampel - Assistant Professor of Computer Information Systems at Georgia State University. Research in AI-enabled Cybersecurity, Large Language Models, and Cyber Threat Intelligence.

Key Metrics

Publications	30
J / C / W	8 / 16 / 6
Years Active	2019-2026
Citations	485
h-index	9
i10-index	9
Avg cites/paper	16.2
Avg authors/paper	3.6
Citation velocity	18
Top venue	IEEE ISI

Collaboration

Unique co-authors: 21
Institutions: 5
Countries: 1

Teaching Snapshot

Courses taught: 14 (9 unique)
Avg evaluation: 4.69/5
Institutions: 2

Research Focus

AI-enabled Cybersecurity, Cyber Threat Intelligence, Large Language Models, Deep Learning, Phishing Detection, Hacker Communities

Top Venues

- IEEE ISI
- AMCIS
- HICSS
- WISP
- ACM KDD
- ACM Transactions on Management Information Systems, 16:1, 1-27

Latest Manuscripts

Seeing Is Not Believing: A Deepfake Video Call Scam at Pan-Asia Trading

Journal of Information Systems Education (JISE), 37:2 | 2026 | Journal

A Domain-Adaptive Soft Prompting Framework for Multi-Type Bias Detection in News

HICSS | 2026 | Conference

Automatic Extraction of Protected Health Information from Multilingual Hacker...

HICSS | 2026 | Conference

Recent Awards

- 2025 — Robinson College of Business IS Cybersecurity Graduate Program Top...
- 2024 — ACM SIGMIS Doctoral Dissertation Award
- 2023 — Best Paper Award, IEEE Intelligence and Security Informatics
- 2023 — Doctoral Consortium

Citation Trend

- 2026: 18
- 2025: 144
- 2024: 133

Generated on 2026-02-04